

RE-ELECTION TO THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Mrs. Leila HAWA

Representative of affiliated companies

- Partner at the law firm Des Gouttes & Associés, Leila Hawa was admitted to the Geneva Bar in 2002 and holds a Masters in Law from Columbia University in New York.
- Specialist in transactions (company and property acquisitions, private equity and venture capital investments), company law (capital and debt structure, corporate governance) and commercial contract law.
- She has been a member of COPRÉ's Board of Trustees since 2021 as a representative member of the affiliated companies. She was also a member of the Audit Commission before becoming, in 2024, a member of the Investment Commission.
- Born in 1976, Leila Hawa is married and the mother of three children